THE FUTURE OF MENTAL HEALTH

Role Description:

Jury member for Get Reel Film Fest Scholarship

About Stella's Place:

Mission: Partnering with young adults 16-29 years old and professionals to provide a collaborative, innovative model of mental health services.

Vision: Healthy, resilient young adults living the lives they choose.

Values: At Stella's Place, we fundamentally value the capabilities and contributions of young adults, as we seek breakthrough innovations that benefit our community and society as a whole.

We also value:

- Inclusiveness, diversity, and equity
- Accessibility and a sharing of knowledge
- Creativity along with a strengths-based approach

GET REEL FILM FESTIVAL

The Stella's Place Get Reel Film Festival is an annual event that creates an opportunity to:

- To bring our community together to learn more about Stella's Place
- To break stigma and normalize meaningful conversations around young adult mental health through the medium of films and create a safe space and a way to spark conversations
- To celebrate young artists by giving them a platform and opportunity to showcase their mental health experience

Stella's Place is recruiting jury members for the Get Reel Film Fest scholarship for emerging, young filmmakers. Members of this committee will be volunteers and will help shape this opportunity for emerging filmmakers. The jury will be made up of both filmmaking and mental health professionals and will review applications based on a graded marking scheme. After the chosen recipients are notified, jurors will provide mentorship to young artists throughout the creation period.
